

Please do not allow cell phone use on aircraft. There is no evidence that they do not interfere with the navigation equipment, and I believe they pose a serious risk to the safety of each and every flight. They also are a breach of security, and can cause already high tensions onboard to escalate. Please do not put my safety and security, as well as every other person onboard, at risk simply for this convenience. Thank you.